Other Information:

The Forsyth Blind Bowling League has been rolling on the lanes of Winston-Salem for more than 20 years! Most of the bowlers have some visual impairment, but sighted persons who meet requirements are also eligible to join the league. League bowling is during the fall and winter months with various tournaments throughout the season, including the Charles E. Roane Invitational Blind Bowling Tournament in March, held right here in Winston-Salem. The league is a member of the American Blind Bowlers Association and Carolina Alliance Bowling
