

Are you set for college this fall?

You can be!

All community colleges and many of North Carolina's four-year colleges and universities are still accepting applications for the coming year. Even if you haven't applied anywhere or weren't admitted to your first choice, there are still opportunities for you to enroll in college this fall.

Let CFNC help find the college for you.

Sign up for the College Redirection Pool at CFNC.org. Once you put in your name and academic information, two- and four-year colleges across North Carolina with available spaces for new students will contact you about their campuses and programs. If you are interested, you can ask for more details and apply for admission.

It's not too late to find a North Carolina college or university where you can enroll in the fall, but you must act quickly!

And don't worry—financial aid is still available too!

To jump in the CFNC College Redirection Pool, talk with your counselor, go to CFNC.org/redirection or call 866-866-CFNC today!
